

AS LONG AS I'M SINGING

#58

Music and Lyrics Waldron Robert Cassotto

As long as I'm singing
There's a bell up in my brain that's ringing
Making a crazy ding dong.

And if this band don't desert me
Then there's nothing in the world can hurt me
Long as I'm singing my song.

Give me trumpets - legato
Put some saxes with 'em
Strings - pizzicato
Add some rhythm.

As long as I'm singing
Then the world's all right and everything's swinging
Long as I'm singing my song.

[BREAK]

Oooh. making music
Is more to me than a pleasure
'Cause me and music
We go together like notes in a measure.

Long as I'm singing
Then the world's all right and everything's swinging
Long as I'm singing my...
Long as I'm singing my...
Long as I'm singing my song.
